MANY ALBERTA MOTHERS will be Queen for a day Sunday, May 13. Mother's Day is the time when husbands and children make things easier for Mom, provide her with fitting tributes to her worth, such as flowers, chocolates, (fur coats?), and a whole lot of love.

Lac la Biche Residents Begin Record Construction Program

With the coming of May, the town of Lac la Biche had shed its winter look and, like the robins, crows and bumble bees, seemed to have forgotten all about the long cold winter so recently left behind.

People were doing the things they always do in May; burning old grass; raking up leaves and trash in front and back yards, repairing walks and fences, and dozens of other little chores which afford the opportunity to be out of doors. Some had done a little work in gardens, such as planting sweet peas and a few trees.

Then it happened! Old man winter made a return visit and dumped 9.4 inches of snow on everything. The unpleasant weather was ushered in Thursday evening, May 3 with a bolt of lightning and clap of thunder. By morning a real blizzard was in progress, which lasted most of Friday. But on Saturday the sun began to clear the snow away and, except for the fact that streets were very muddy, a return to normal seemed in sight.

For many residents this is the first year the snow has vanished & left them with a good concrete sidewalk. The extensive sidewalk program undertaken by the town last fall, added to the walks built in previous years, now makes a total of over four and a half miles of concrete walks.

To the interested observer there are unmistakable signs that 1962 will be one of the most active years yet experienced in this active town. This is the year the new high school is being built, which many a student may some day remember with pride as the building becomes a landmark in the community. Already the sound of hammers and the whine of power saws are to be heard in various parts of town as some older buildings get new roofs or new exterior finish, and private garages take shape. A number of prospective home owners are known to be testing the depth of frost remaining in the ground from time to time, anxiously waiting to begin digging basements as soon as conditions will permit.

While these may be common signs connected with the advent of spring, the casual observer might remark that they are coming at a pace not known in other years. At least a dozen new homes are known to be planned by residents of the town at this date and the number is likely to grow. There is an air of expectancy in the town which even the stranger cannot help but notice as he asks, "What makes this town grow?"

New Democrats Name Vallee To Contest Athabasca Seat

The New Democratic Party nominated a candidate to contest the seat in the federal constituency of Athabasca. Pierre Maurice Vallee, 28, of St. Lina, was the choice of the convention held at Glendon on April 26. It was an acclamation as the only other contestant withdrew shortly before nomination.

Mr. Vallee is the fourth candidate to present himself in the constituency of Athabasca.

He will be running against the current member, Jack Bigg, Progressive Conservative of Westlock; Jules Van Brabant, Liberal, St. Paul; and Joe Mikkelson, Social Credit of Athabasca.

The New Democratic Party Association of the federal constituency of Athabasca also elected an executive at a meeting held in St. Paul the previous week.

The president is Pierre Maurice Vallee of St. Lina; vice-president, William Filipchuk, Glendon; secretary, Donald Kelly, St. Lina. A board of directors is to be appointed.

Grant Netley, provincial secretary of the NDP, was guest speaker. He drew an image of the new party and the nature of its appeal to the electorate, along with some of the basic campaign platform planks the candidates will present to the people.

The New Democratic Party candidate, Pierre Maurice Vallee, is 28 years old and a resident of St. Lina.

Born in Wainwright, he came to the district when quite young 20 years ago and took the major part of his education in St. Lina schools.

He is a rancher with a feed lot four miles north of the hamlet, a faithful Legion member and a supporter of the Farmers' Union and the cause of the rural people.

Mr. Vallee served in the RCAF as a jet pilot and was discharged with the rank of Flying Officer.

Pierre Vallee, representing the NDP of this constituency, challenges to meet any and all of the Old War Parties on whatever grounds they may choose! He urges all who are able to assist in the fight for Canadian liberation and world peace to contact the campaign manager, Bill Filipchuk, Glendon, or constituency secretary, Donald Kelly, St. Lina.

Record Attendance Noted At Season-Opening Social

LAC LA BICHE — On May 2 the Lac la Biche Golf and Country Club held its annual season-opening social at the Memorial Hall. The attendance topped all previous attendance records for this social. It was a dine and dance event with music provided by the Ramsey orchestra, the food being smorgasbord with several women contributing their specialty for the meal.

The floor show featured a quiz program, with L. J. Badry and M. A. Tarrabain as contestants. Mr. Badry was the winner of the quiz. Another act had Profesor Shanks demonstrating his growth machine, with the help of E. G. Dobson and Eldage Gregoire. An act of dancing midgets was put on by the dancing twins, Mickey and Jimmie Hamar.

The whole venture was again successful, as in the past, mainly due to the co-operation of all the members of the Golf Club. A special vote of thanks is due to the ladies who worked so hard to put on the supper.

The next function of the Golf Club will be the seasonal opener golf tournament, for which entries are now being received by the president. This local mixed handicap tournament will be held on Monday, May 21.

Athabasca ASB Issues Plans For Blood Testing Of Cattle

Before the County of Athabasca No. 12 can be declared a Brucellosis (Bangs) free area, a general bloodtesting program must be undertaken. The bloodtesting will be under way in the County by June 1, 1962.

It is necessary that all Stockowners acquaint themselves with the different aspects of this forthcoming bloodtest.

The program is handled by the Department of Agriculture, Health of Animals Division, under the direction of Dr. J. F. Gallivan, Northern Regional Supervisor.

There will be no cost to the farmers, but the regulations state in part that owners of cattle within a Brucellosis Control area shall assist inspectors and Veterinarians in making tests by assembling the cattle when requested to do so giving whatever additional help that he may require.

Blood samples will be taken from all cattle except calves under 8 months, steers and vaccinated animals less than three years old, providing proof of vaccination (Ear tag or certificate) is present.

For blood samples collection, the animals must be well restrained and equipment so modified that the animals head and neck may be extended through the front of the chute and held firmly to one side.

The Athabasca County ASB has asked the Stockmen, that at the present time do not have a good safe corral and chute to make provisions to have built. Plans for "Corral and chute for cattle" are available from the District Agriculturist or Field Supervisor.

Watch for further articles in this paper regarding the Bloodtesting of cattle.

foods from other lands. Foreign foods add variety without expense as they consist of small pieces of economical cuts of meat. The seasonings are what make them distinctive.

HAWAIIAN CURRY

Yield: 8 Servings

¼ cup salad oil
2 medium onions, minced
2 apples, peeled and diced
5 tbsps. flour
1 tbsp. curry powder
1 quart liquid (see note)
2 cloves garlic
¼ tsp. ginger
4 cups cooked crab, shrimps, chicken or meat, cubed

METHOD

1. Heat the oil and add onions and apples. Cover and cook until clear.
2. Add flour and curry powder; stir until smooth.
3. Slowly stir in liquid.
4. Force garlic through garlic press and add juice to sauce, taste and add more curry if desired. Add ginger.
5. Cover and cook on very low heat for 1 hour, stirring occasionally, strain if desired.
6. Add cooked meat, chicken or seafood and cook just long enough to heat through.

Note: Liquid may be chicken or beef broth, bouillon or milk. For true Hawaiian Curry, part of liquid should be coconut milk. Curry is served with rice.

How To Make Coconut Milk

Coconut milk as used in Hawaii is extracted from grated coconut and should not be confused with the watery liquid found in a mature coconut. Coconut milk is easily made by either of the following methods:

1. Fresh coconut: Pour 2 cups of boiling water over 4 cups freshly grated coconut. Let stand 20 minutes stirring occasionally. Strain through a double thickness of cheese cloth, pressing hard to remove all liquid.
2. Prepared coconut: Pour 2 cups milk over 1 can or package of coconut. Slowly bring to a boil; remove from heat and let stand 20 minutes stirring occasionally. Strain through a double thickness of cheese cloth, pressing to remove all liquid.

Never Wins Contest, Man Urges Inquiry

An Alberta man who claims he sent 27,787 right answers to a radio quiz program in the past 10 years and has never had one drawn wants an investigation by the ottorney-general's department.

The man alleges fraud and misrepresentation on the part of the Calgary radio station involved. Solicitors of the attorney-general's department are looking into the matter and intend to turn the investigation over to the Calgary city police. The Board of Broadcast Governors also has been notified.

The man says he is suspicious because although none of the 27,787 right answers he submitted were ever drawn, he has submitted 128 incorrect answers and had 18 of them drawn.

In addition, he claims that nine times he submitted from 370 to 1,620 letters the day following the beginning of each contest and never had one of his right answers drawn.

In a recent contest, he claims, he submitted 30 entries to the contest the day it was announced. He said he had the right answers. The next day, the announcer stated a draw couldn't be made because no entries had been received.

The contestant wants the letters submitted in the recent contest seized to see if they have been tampered with and to check the postmark to determine when they were delivered to the station.

If the contestant sent his entries in unopened envelopes requiring five cent stamps, it has cost him $1,389.35. In opened envelopes, using two-cent stamps, it would have cost him $555.74.

The regular meeting of the Evangelical Free Church Women's Missionary Society was held Tuesday, May 1 at the home of Mrs. David Cadieux with a good turnout.

Mrs. F. Creighton, president, chaired the meeting and Mrs. Paul Cadieux, secretary, recorded the minutes. The devotional was given by Mrs. J. Philips.

The date of future meetings was set for the first Tuesday of the month. The hostess served a lunch at the conclusion of the evening.

A MATTER OF FIT

The floorwalker of a department store noticed a young man looking very confused, so he went to him and asked,

Floorwalker—Can I help you, sir? You seem puzzled about something.

Fellow—I am. I was supposed to buy either a camisole or a casserole, but so help me, I can't remember which.

Floorwalker (amiably)—Perhaps, I can help you if you will tell me what sort of chicken you intend putting in it.

LET IT GO AND ENJOY A DUET

Willie was destined to be a great violinist — at least so thought his mother.

But one evening, while Willie was practicing on his fiddle, she got a bit of a shock. Her husband stamped in from the garden and glared at his son.

"Why didn't you tell me that Willie was going to practice on his violin tonight?" he demanded. "I've spent half an hour oiling the gate!"

Municipal Nurses' Homes Closed, Houses And Furnishings Are Sold

PLAMONDON — Much to the regret of the people and the public of the entire district the government has decided to dispense with the local municipal nurses in the three districts and the sign above the door reading "Municipal Nurse" has been removed.

The little cottages that for years the public struggled to keep in operation, and the little cottage where the government nurse resided, "The Nurse in Blue" the public used to call her, and was at the beck and call of all the districts when needed; where the old folks of the district could go for their check up and the mothers dropped in to consult about their children and their own problems, not only medical but also personal problems are now closed.

The nurse was there not only in time of illness, but to console them, to help them with their problems and to be a leader in the community.

The minister of health and his department have decided that nurses are a thing of the past. The district feels that if municipal nurses were so necessary to the districts 20 years ago, with the growing population and shortage of hospital beds and medical doctors, this service should not be dispensed with today.

A petition, representing over 1000 persons of the Plamondon and Breynat districts, was presented to the honorable minister over a year ago, with the views and desire of the public presented before him.

But the service was not necessary the people were told. So the request and the views of the public were not considered. This service was supplemented by the health unit for which the residents are grateful, but they feel it can never replace the service of the municipal district nurse.

An auction sale was held, the furnishings were dispensed with, the cottage sold, and so closes a chapter in the lives of the pioneers of these three districts.

NOT A CHORE:

Washing pillows need not be a chore, no matter what the filling. Feather and down pillows require more effort.

You can wash pillows either in the washing machine or in the bathtub. Squeeze warm lather through and through, making sure the suds are plentiful and thick. Rinse the pillows out thoroughly in water of the same temperature, using the same squeezing action. If you put them through the wringer do so slowly with extreme caution as you may give yourself a shower bath or even burst the ticking.

DRYING PILLOW

If possible, dry pillows in the sun, except the foam rubber type. While drying on the clothesline plump them up occasionally to distribute the filling evenly.

If the pillows are foam rubber, squeeze the water out thoroughly and lay them flat in a shady, breezy spot or place them indoors where there is a good air current. Foam rubber requires a long time to dry.

CARE OF FOAM RUBBER

It is virtually indestructible but strong sunlight, intense heat, oil, grease, tar and some dry-cleaning fluids cause deterioration. Therefore, do not let rubber upholstered furniture stand in strong sunlight for any length of time and keep it away from radiators and steam pipes. An undesirable odor in foam rubber may be an indication of deterioration.

Any oil, grease, or tar spots should be removed immediately with warm water and mild soap. If the spots are stubborn, use dry-cleaning fluid, but be careful as these fluids soften rubber and vigorous action could cause permanent damage. Tears can be mended with rubber cement.

People who ride in fast-moving automobiles without adequate brakes must expect to be pulled out of overturned and cracked up vehicles.

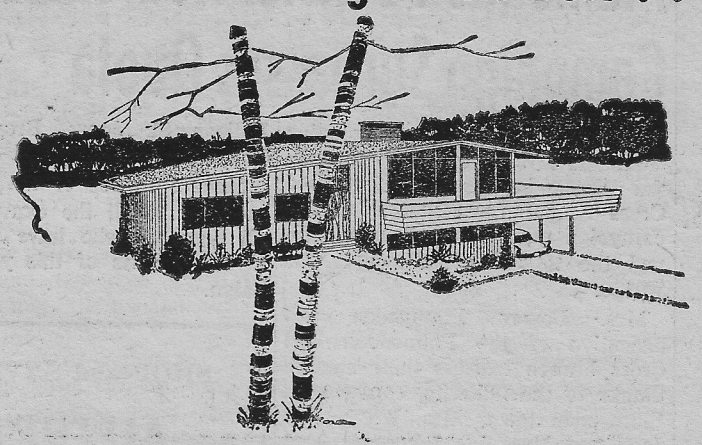
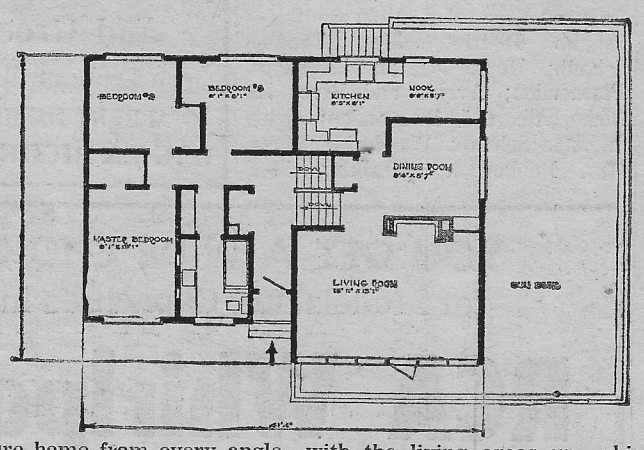
Split Level Planning At Its Best . . .



THE BUILDING CENTRE
VANCOUVER, B.C.
PLAN No. R7B-11188 FLOOR AREA 1188.5 SQ. FT.



A picture home from every angle, here is split level planning at its very best.

The floor layout shows the dining room as a separate from the formal dining, but the efficiently planned nook includes a nook for dining "en famille." Sloping ceilings with plaster finish are featured throughout the house, but are especially effective in the living room, allowing for large picture windows . . . french door from living room opens to the balcony at the front of the house . . . balcony continues around the side over the carport for a sun deck and around the back to the kitchen door, an ideal arrangement for serving outdoor meals, on the deck.

Complete privacy for all areas of the house is a feature. There is a recreation room with fireplace under the living areas, which is made possible because, in this split level, the bedrooms are on the lower level with the living areas up, which of course, is also a factor in the heating of the house. It is scientific knowledge that heat rises, and thus better control of heating throughout is possible because of the designing of this house.

Although not post and beam, careful attention to design throughout has produced a truly delightful concept of contemporary planning.

Designed for NHA approval, working drawings are available from the Building Centre (B.C.) Ltd., 116 East Broadway, Vancouver 10. New edition of Select Homes Designs Plan book is now available. Send 25 cents to cover cost of mailing and handling.

DR. R. N. THOMPSON — KICKOFF SPEECH

Socreds Would Create Dept. Federal-Provincial Affairs

Alberta's Robert N. Thompson, national leader of the Social Credit party, kicked off his federal election campaign by saying that his party would create a department of federal-provincial affairs to help Canada on a "national path to unity."

The department, Mr. Thompson said, would co-ordinate national development and matters of federal government policy affecting the provinces.

It would be "a natural follow through" to the conferences of provincial premiers and such gatherings as the Resources for Tomorrow conference held at Montreal in September.

Mr. Thompson spoke—mainly in English—to a crowd estimated by party officials at 6,000 in the agricultural palace on the Quebec exhibition grounds.

Mr. Thompson said Canada's "decision to be a nation is a perpetual challenge."

MUST BE UNIFED

"Canada must be great or perish. She must find the national path to unify or be swallowed up."

Canada, Mr. Thompson said "must free herself from the apron strings of mother Britain." A Social Credit government would "bring the constitution to Canada."

It would appoint "a non-political, representative committee to" choose a national anthem and a flag for the country and assure "adequate representation" of both main cultures in the administration.

There must also be more respect for provincial and municipal autonomy, Mr. Thompson declared. Social Credit would create a municipal developemnt bank where municipalities could obtain low-cost loans for improvements.

ANY BETTER ANSWER?

"I've never heard a man talk so fast in my life."

"Why shouldn't he? His father was a tobacco auctioneer and his mother was a woman."

We all know how to read but, with all the books, etc., available we do not discover much except by personal experience.

Steel Company Takes Over Premier Steel

The Steel Company of Canada formally took over the operations of Premier Steel in Alberta and Saskatchewan at a special meeting of directors of the two companies in Edmonton.

Stelco president V. W. T. Scully said his company decided to extend its operations to Edmonton, where Premier's main plant is located, because "we forsee great growth in this part of the country." He pointed out "you can't build anything without steel" and he added we can service this area better from here than from Hamilton where Stelco's 434-million dollar, integrated steel works is located.

The holders of Premier's 631 thousand shares received $16 a share from Stelco, or a total of $10 million, plus a dividend of an equal number of shares in Peace River Mining and Smelting, a company formed recently to mine low grade ore at Peace River. Mr. Scully said Stelco's offer has been accepted by holders of 98 per cent of Premier's shares.

Mr. Scully said he foresaw the time when Peace River ore would be used but Stelco excluded it from its purchase because it could not use the amount of ore which must be produced annually to make the mine economical.

All the directors of Premier resigned except Dr. F. G. Winspear. G. R. Heffernan resigned as director but will continue as vice-president and general manager of Premier for the time-being. H. M. Griffith, a vice-president of Stelco, succeeded Dr. Winspear, as president. The new directors of Premier, which will operate as a subsidiary of Stelco, are Mr. Griffith, L. T. Craig, N. J. Brown and R. B. Taylor, all of whom are senior officers of Stelco.

New Survival Booklet Available In 2 Languages

The first shipment of the new Federal Government publication "Survival in Likely Target Areas" has just been received at Alberta Emergency Measures Headquarters in Edmonton, for public distribution.

An appreciation of why Calgary and Edmonton together with other specified cities in Canada have been designated as more likely targets together with an explanation what size of weapons would most probably be used and the effects of such weapons is followed by detailed instructions as to the course of action which should be followed by civilians.

The booklet evaluates the many factors which would influence decisions including the probable warning period before an attack by missiles or bombers, whether it is wiser to evacuate or stay and what preparations should be made now, based on these individual choices.

Copies of the booklet in French or English are available without charge by writing EMO P.O. Box 10,000, Edmonton.

When you Paint your house

USE THE PAINT THAT'S WORTH THE COST OF PUTTING IT ON...

Kyanize HOUSE PAINTS

WORTH PUTTING ON BECAUSE...

The binder is a blend of refined and heat treated pure linseed oil, proved the most durable vehicle for exterior paint.

The pigments are selected and blended for maximum hiding, color-retention, and wearing qualities.

A powerful fungicide in the mixture resists mildew, remains active, keeps white paint white, colors fresh.

Colors are keyed to standard roofing colors. Color-related groupings help you work out pleasing color schemes.

Any paint job costs money. A job that lasts is the least costly . . . and that's the job done with longer lasting

Bride From Lebanon Comes To District

LAC LA BICHE — Albert Ferris and his bride, the former Horson Ferris of Lebanon, returned from Edmonton early in the week.

Mrs. Ferris left Lebanon a recent Saturday evening and travelled by jet to Edmonton in 24 hours with stops in France and Montreal. Relatives and friends were at the airport to meet the newcomer on her arrival and Albert met her early Monday morning. They were married later in the day and wedding festivities were held at the home of relatives.

Now they are living in Lac la Biche and Mrs. Ferris is seeking to adjust to life in a strange land with strange customs. Albert has been here for six years.

When we do the job... You know it's done RIGHT!

You can call a halt to progress any time — even "up in the air". The quickest way, for both individuals and business is to stop planning for the future — or not to have the ability to plan for any future.

In essence, the principle of fire, automobile and casualty insurance is that it is a plan for the future. It ensures progress by banding people together to share the expected losses of the few among the many. Because it allows people to "average out" their chances of a completely crushing loss into a relatively small fixed expense, insurance enables them to move ahead on a planned basis.

The fact that Canada's fire, automobile and casualty insurance companies are paying out more than a million and a half dollars every day this year in claims indicates that prudent Canadians make safe plans for their future.
